Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-24 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art fails to disclose or render obvious a dispenser for heating and dispensing a liquid in anyone of a plurality of canisters in combination with the other claimed limitations of claim 1:

"said first member being slidably retained over said aperture, said first member for adjusting a size of said aperture to selectively receive anyone of the plurality of canisters".

The prior art fails to disclose or render obvious a dispenser for heating a liquid and dispensing a foam from a canister having a valve stem in combination with the other claimed limitations of claim 12:

"said member having a second opening with a second diameter, wherein said member is laterally movable to partially block and adjust a size of said first opening to receive the canister through said first opening and said second opening".

The prior art fails to disclose or render obvious a dispenser for removable connection to a canister in combination with the other claimed limitations of claim 21:

"wherein said opening is adjustable, and wherein said device adjusts a distance between said base collar and said housing to receive a plurality of differently sized canisters".

The prior art fails to disclose or render obvious a base collar for a dispenser in combination with the other claimed limitations of claim 24:

"wherein said first adjustor and said second adjustor selectively adjust said bottom opening to receive a plurality of differently sized foam canisters".

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Hygena et al. 6,795,645, Taylor et al. 2006/0113326, Taylor et al. 6,978,912, Aiken et al. 6,655,552 and Marcoux 3,476,293 disclose other types of dispenser for heating and dispensing a liquid.
